BROTHAS presents...

BHM Keynote Address by:

Dr. Moses Ikiugu, PhD, OTR/L, FAOTA -

Tenured Occupational Therapy Research Professor at the University of South Dakota. He is the current AOTA delegate to the World Occupational Therapy Federation. As a former member of the Representative Assembly (RA) he previously served as chair of the Credentialing Committee. Dr. Ikiugu will discuss his career trajectory, current NASA research and need to engage in Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (DEI) mentoring programs.

African American males make up less than > 0.5% of all OT/OTA students and practitioners. To meet societies occupational needs, our profession must have a renewed focus on this population, both academically and clinically. [BROTHAS] Black-male Registered Occupational Therapy Healthcare-professionals Assistants & Students was established to serve as an advocacy organization for this population.

BROTHAS Focus Areas:

- 1.) OT/OTA MENTORSHIP
- 2.) NEW GRAD PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
- 3.) DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION

We look forward to a very informative discussion.

Thanks for your support,

BROTHAS in OT Steering Committee
